

MOUNTAINY KENNEDYS MAILING LIST 25
FEBRUARY 2014

In the Cromwellian dispossessions of 1652 the Kennedy landholders lost 30,000 acres of their Tipperary lands. Many were banished to Connacht. Rather than submit to the conquerors some Kennedys defied the banishment. Several Kennedy families and their retainers created a new life for themselves in the mountain wilderness. For many years they lived and raised their sons and daughters and established themselves in an invisible world where outsiders feared to tread. Their descendants, wherever they are now located, can look back with pride to the story of courage and fortitude that we have been able to research and relate.

THE MOUNTAINY KENNEDYS – VOLUME 2 – LINKING PAST AND PRESENT

Months of research and collation has now been finalised and I expect to have a proof from the printers in a few weeks.

Thanks you for the effort you have made in providing contributions and suggestions for the book. It was a hectic time towards the end but, at 477 pages, the results are well worth it. Many thanks to my proof readers, Sean and Colleen (or the prodnoses as former newspaperman Rody Kennedy, of Bunacum and the UK, says they were designated in his day). They have done a great job in drawing a variety of matters to my attention. With so much detail, it takes more than one pair of eyes to scrutinise effectively.

If all goes according to plan “The Mountainy Kennedys – Volume 2 – Linking Past and Present” will be available for launching at the Kennedy Gathering on July 6th.

2014 KENNEDY GATHERING AND INAUGURATION OF KENNEDY CHIEF

The 2014 Kennedy Gathering is programmed as follows:

Date: Sunday 6th July
Time: 8:00 pm
Venue: Anglesey Lounge,
 Rody Kennedy’s Bar & Shop,
 Rearcross
 County Tipperary

Prior to the Gathering the Inauguration of the O’Kennedy chief will take place at a venue and time to be determined. We are looking at the possibility of holding the Inauguration at the Curreeny Hedge School site at 5pm on the day of the Gathering.

People from Australia, UK and USA plan to join Kennedy descendants, relatives and well-wishers from far and wide for the Inauguration and Gathering.

TULLAUN CASTLE RENOVATION

Diarmid na Brosny O’Kennedy was an O’Kennedy chief who was slain in rebellion in 1600. He was the owner of this castle which is described under the name Lisquillibeen and other names such as Tullaghane etc in “The Irish Kennedys” pages 120-123. This castle has been referred to as “The Jewel among the ruins”. I have had great pleasure in visiting it on a number of occasions.

Sonja Bergin formerly of Melbourne, Australia, and her husband Kevin, from Dublin, have undertaken the long-term task of renovating this castle. It is rare indeed to see a castle built and owned by an O’Kennedy being returned to its former state. Sonja and Kevin are to be congratulated on their acceptance of this challenge. Their website can be viewed at <http://www.tullauncastle.com/> There is a link to my website.

The castle also has a Facebook page and Sonja would love to get some more Kennedy "fans". Please recognise the efforts she and Kevin are putting in to revive O'Kennedy history by becoming a "Friend".

Sonja has also advised that they would like to attend the Kennedy Gathering in July.

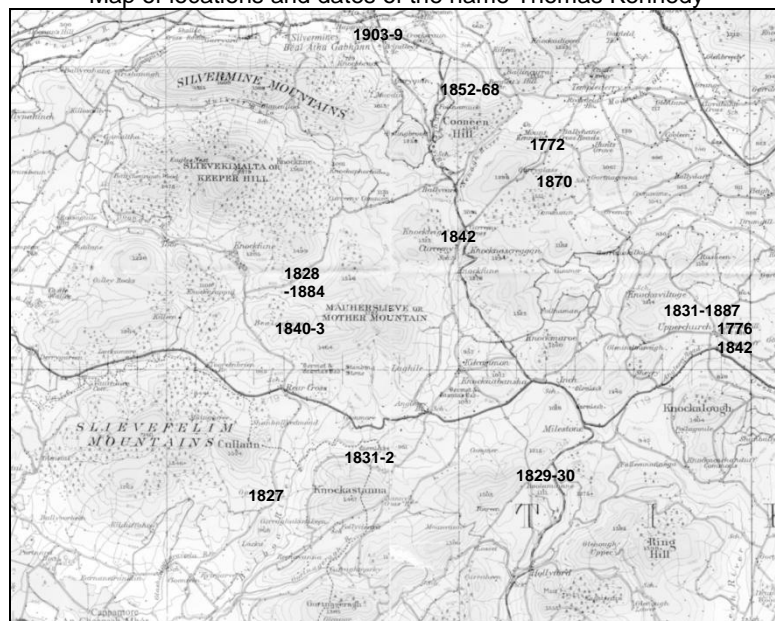

MALE KENNEDY FIRST NAMES

The name Thomas Kennedy did not appear in the Civil Survey of 1654 although it was a biblical name popular among the Normans and used following their arrival in Ireland. An early appearance of the name in the mountains was in 1776 when Thomas Kennedy was recorded as having leased 16 acres in Gortnaskea (Upperchurch) for a period of 31 years. In 1791, Thomas and Roger Kennedy leased 413 acres of Rhearnogue from Sir John Rous for 31 years.

The unfortunate Thomas Kennedy of Gannavane was hanged at Doon in 1798 after being convicted of taking arms, probably in the rebellion of that year. James Fitzgerald who informed on Thomas was later found murdered in the mountains near Bilboa.
